

I use my xm radio every day. From the great music station to NASCAR radio to the traffic and weather channel for Detroit XM 216. I Love my XM and use it daily. I have paid for these services and you (The FCC) should not have the right to listen take them away. I would be extremely if this service was taken away after all the money I have spent to get this great service in my vehicle.
Sincerely,
Robert IShmael